1:30-3:00	WORKSHOPS: Developing a Church Growth Plan	Boathouse

Most churches desire to grow but few take the time to develop a plan or a strategy to promote growth. You are invited to come share in a discussion about how to develop a church growth plan that fits your church and the community you are called to serve. The workshop will be led by Rev. Dave Carter, Pastor of McLean Community Church UCC and Moderator of the Susquehanna Association.

The Pension Boards: Your Partner for Congregational Vitality and Sustainability

Upper Board Rm

This session will introduce you to the mission and resources of this vital arm of the UCC and to our emerging vision of dynamic partnerships with congregations and conferences that ensure their vitality and sustainability. Our guiding them for this session and our work every day is "Matters to you...matters to us...impacts the world"

Presenters:

The Rev. Dr. Jonathan Lee: Director, Church Relations and Operations

Mr. Joaquin Labour: Director, Grants and Scholarships

The Rev. Dr. Paul Ramsey, Philanthropy Officer

Go Out in Joy

In this session-We will sing (as common sense and health safety concerns allow), we will dance (all mobility and fitness levels welcome), we will ponder deeply, we will envision and we will laugh. This is an interactive workshop.

If you are desiring to reconnect with your joy in life, this might be the most wonderful thing you can gift yourself this weekend, going forward in your days. Let us begin begin this journey together; let us Go Out in Joy!

Presenter: Martha Gallagher- has been, for over 40 years, sharing her ministry through her songs, stories and in-the-moment inspirations with a joie de vivre, illuminating the happenings of daily life as beautiful gems of the heart and soul for us to remember to recognize, celebrate and cherish.
